

Teaching Tip of the Week

11/4/96

Check back Mondays for the latest!

Introducing....!

During the course of a club or class I have heard many teachers say, "Now we are going to have our Bible lesson." or "Now we are going to sing a song." Everything seemed to stop and start with, "Now we are going to...."

Your class will be much more exciting if you can introduce your next activity without giving away what it is. Try this one for starters: Ask if anyone knows the meaning of a key word in the Bible lesson, song, memory verse or whatever you are about to teach. Either the correct answer will be given or you will have to explain the word, either way you are now ready to teach without having given an announcement and with having given the children a chance to participate.
